Constitution Tower The Constitution Tower (,) is the official symbol of Republic of Macedonia. It was symbolically hoisted into the air in Skopje during the Yugoslav era on November 5, 1945. It was established as a state symbol on May 15, 2009. The stature has been on display from 1945 at the Vardar Military School, a military school which is part of the Faculty of Economy and the Faculty of Architecture at the Faculty of Science, University of Skopje. The tower was removed from the pediment of the building to an open site, until now the historic yard of the school. Structure The tower stands in the centre of Skopje. The main building consists of a tower and 1.40 meters of walls, rising to a height of 6 metres. The tower is narrow, of a rectangular appearance. On the outer wall are inscribed 4 gold-colored slabs, where engraved words are written "Republic of Macedonia" on one and the words "Youth" on the other. The podium on which the tower is supported by criss-cross beams is encircled by a belt which bears, on both sides, the words "Republic of Macedonia" and the image of a lion. On each side of the tower, there is a stone base for supporting a tree. History The design 3e33713323
