Tom Clancy's Splinter Cell: Conviction (PROTECT YOUR IP!) Blacklist. Is it possible to kill the only one named "Mom's Best Friend" any suggestions for a projector? Endless Splinter Cell 2,5 hours no-stop mode with The Blacklist and a Custom patch. The Blacklist is really freaking great in multiplayer. I love it. Sorry for this topic, I need to vent. I have been playing Splinter Cell for years and I love that game. It is my favorite game of all time. It is the best Splinter Cell game. We all know that Convection's mission is really really hard as any of the previous games if you screw up you will die because it will count as your third death. In the last few games the AI turned complete assholes. I was playing a friendly game, no cheaters, only my friend. We have been playing for nearly 3 hours when we where losing we decided to go for a counter-surveil. While the enemy was randomly walking in certain rooms, I waited at a certain position and spotted my friend as he was going back to his escape route. As I looked towards my friend, the enemy spotted me and saw me. Both my friend and I where spotted but before the enemy could take a shot at my friend, I took a blind shot and hit the enemy which made him fall to his knees. He tried to fire at me but before he could react, I took another shot that hit him which made him fall dead. My friend proceeded to kill him and then ran to a nearby room. We got to this room and just as we entered the room, the game just ended. No ending, nothing, just the desktop screen with a countdown timer. After an hour or so, the countdown just stopped and the screen turned black. So that is my very first rant about this game. Convection mission. Please don't try to kill the Splinter or the Anomaly. They will counter-surve
