Simply-Tetris is a very simple Tetris game. The object is to clear the lines by dropping balls on them. Each line must be cleared by one ball falling. It can be cleared by a ball of any colour. If two balls of the same colour fall on the same line, they stick to it, and can be rotated by pressing space on your keyboard, or shift-space on a Macintosh. Clear lines of two colours can be cleared simultaneously by dropping two balls of different colours on them. The game is controlled by the arrow keys, the spacebar (default), and the shift-spacebar. You can start the game by pressing the return key, and go back to the Main Menu by pressing the shift-return key. Each ball has a random shape (hexagon, rectangle, etc) and a random colour. Simply-Tetris Demo: Simply-Tetris is a fun Tetris game that can be played on the browser. Simply-Tetris Demo uses SoundManager 2 and JQuery. If you have troubles with mouse events, try with another JQuery. Simply-Tetris Demo requires Flash to play. iSnake is a Javascript Tetris clone. You control a snake with the arrows and spacebar. The snake moves towards the left or right, depending on the direction of the arrow key, but the blocks do not. The game is over when the snake runs into a wall.
