Adding a new Feature: Rush Shots; Create a momentum boost on the ball by applying a spin to the ball. This is going to be the first time I try to play FIFA and it's going to be for a League of Legends NA CS team, actually. I'm a bit newer to it, but I guess you have to consider adding new features, ever? A lot of features were added with FIFA 17 and FIFA 18, mostly with pro team features. In FIFA 19 we were a bit worried that we didn't have the time to iterate on the core gameplay and that the player-base would not know how to use the new features, but it's been amazing to watch them work. We've seen nearly 600,000 players try to use the new features and we're seeing that they're really enjoying it and using it. You also announced this in December, and it was also added in December so yeah, that's a nice December release. Yes, maybe I'm trying to jump on their timing. Has the League of Legends server ever seen worse development? Phew! No, actually, it's improving really quickly! The last couple of weeks have been really great, so we're seeing a good momentum in patch releases. The players are really enjoying working on the game. We had a lot of people speaking out about "Why should I bother playing this when I can play League of Legends?" And we ask ourselves too, "Why would you bother playing a video game when you can play a real-time strategy game?" We really want to make sure that the League of Legends players understand that they're using a different type of game, and it's not right that they use League of Legends terminology and features when they're playing our game. You've used a lot of League of Legends features like "Nash", and the "Steal" button. Yeah, we're also trying to keep our messaging simple. The one thing that helps
