Watch on YouTube Watch on YouTube You can use the Templates feature to create your own custom gameplay moments using real-life movements from official players. The System Sounds and Stadium Sounds feature enables you to create more immersive and varied gameplay using predefined voices from real footballers. The feature also delivers authentic stadium sounds and crowd noises such as singing, chanting and fireworks. You can also set full stadium music (with up to 8 different playing positions). In the new Direct Ground Impact feature, more free-kicks and penalty kicks are delivered by using more realistic weight transfer. It gives your player better control over the ball as well as increased height accuracy when landing. In the new Formation Wizard feature, the new assistant coach assistant offers you the chance to create formations for your starting XI, with all the formations used by each world power in FIFA 19. Watch on YouTube Watch on YouTube As part of a new feature called the Guardian System, the computer will use external visual cues to judge the trajectories and passes of players on the pitch. Defenders are often fouled when not physically protecting an opposing player. Watch on YouTube Watch on YouTube Alongside Guardian System, Full Control is a new live-free-kick system that removes ball watching by allowing you to directly drag the AI player to the ball if they don't stop on their own accord. The new Commander ability allows you to manually set a free kick, giving you greater control over free kicks in situations where the AI otherwise won't kick the ball. Watch on YouTube Watch on YouTube You can now get tactical advice from new assistant coach assistant during midfield rebuilds. In addition, this feature is expected to help manage your team's transition into a new offensive formation. used to power FIFA 22 gameplay.

- You can now name any player on the team in FIFA Ultimate Team.
- FIFA 22 introduces a new Career Mode to progress as a manager or player through FIFA. This includes the ability to control the formation, tactics and training sessions of a whole squad; invest in youth players to balance the club, compete in lower leagues to reach the Premier League, or play exhibition games to earn huge rewards.
- Player TOTS - A visual presentation of all the existing players you have collected in FIFA 21, showing percentage ratings for Attack, Defense, and Overall.
- FIFA 22 introduces an all-new version of Player Impact Engine with lower weights and new physics-based actions, giving players more control over the ball and the game.
- New Skill Dynamics now force players to execute on-the-ball actions with precision and accuracy.
- Improved handling and increased ball control, for a better and more realistic, arcade-football experience.
- Brand new experiences through companion gameplay, including a brand new Skill Training Trailer by EA Trax and Movement Companion app.
- Route Revision - Running routes are optimized to give you the clearest view of passing options - you'll even see defenders arrive in time to push you off the ball.
- New refined vision and intelligence around when and why the ball disappears.
- Goalkeepers can now save in End Games - the goalkeeper is constantly working to master these new ball physics and improve their saves.
- Unseen Victory Conditions - Await the unexpected and chase an improbable victory in New Catenaccio system; only the heroic efforts of your defenders can get you back into the game. Or increase the odds of a comeback?
- The Premier Extravaganza is back and bigger than ever, with the new Premier League, featuring over 100 clubs in Europe and North America.

FIFA is a football game developed and published by Electronic Arts, and released as a series of annual installments. The franchise has sold more than 225 million units worldwide. What is FIFA 22? FIFA 22 is the latest iteration of the popular football video game series. Following the lead of FIFA 21, it sees a return to the smaller clubs and bigger nations but this time it's not in the virtual form. It's all real. FIFA 22 will be the first of a three-part, free update for the FIFA series scheduled for release in 2019, with FIFA 21 following close behind. The third installment - FIFA 365 - will come later in the year. Pre-load content for FIFA 22 Pre-load content for FIFA 22 What's new? Realism - FIFA 22 has been rebuilt from the ground up to capture the skills and speed of elite players. The team at EA have focused on how players respond to your actions in key moments, when being close to an opponent or when trying to complete a move. Also, check out the adaptive AI which learns and improves from your play style to become smarter and more tactical. The new Verbo Engine even captures your emotions to make you more connected to the game, and celebrates success. Player intelligence - EA has worked hard to ensure that the game remains believable and intuitive for players at every level. It's the realisation of the goal that it is hard to control a football, so with each player, the pitch has been broken down into a series of 15-second moments, and you can use your skills and training to control individual players within these. The new Verbo Engine has increased the CPU's processing power by 30% while also reducing CPU load by 30%. Campaign - With FIFA 21, we saw the beginning of a brand new Campaign format. This year we have fully embraced the mode with new seasons, game modes, and player ratings. The new Career offers increased depth. It now has unique seasons, career paths, new events and in-match feedback. Use the new Custom Pitches feature to create your own game on any number of custom settings. Premier League - With the introduction of FUT Champions and FUT Champions Cup, the Premier League now has a fully-detailed career mode that lets you take charge of the Manchester United squad in the first season, or join one of the other clubs in the final campaign. You can
