'â€¢ËœVocal Fix Playerâ€¢ The Vocal Fix Player is a â€œvirtual vocal boothâ€ plugin and is designed to simulate a mastering level vocal control room. It might be modified, but you have no license (if you got a license) to redistribute it. You are allowed to sell it but you still can't redistribute it.The only way to be allowed to redistribute is having aÂÂ license that allows you to do so.By providing a link to this page you agree to this and for any questions, or legal matters, please contact us.The links listed in the disclaimer do not imply that you need to login to the sites, but the sites do require you to register. The only reason you need to be a member is to get a license for your software to redistribute. We are a small group of audio professionals who want to share software with other audio professionals. The software we distribute must meet specific requirements: Be completely free Be useable We provide the software for free, and we provide the entire source code to allow you to modify the source to your specific needs. Note that the license does not allow distribution of the software in modified form in any way. We are authorized distributors for certain software titles. We have the legal right to distribute the software according to the license agreement for that software. If you have purchased Vocalfix pro you can redistribute the vocalfixpro.exe file with your file if you have a license for the software. In order to do this simply edit the file and edit the following lines: 0(0/VocalFix Pro v2.0)! &lP(e>- &8v00$>) &8 * If you wish to redistribute the vocalfixpro.exe you also have to edit the license file. In the license file you need to change the last two lines to be in the same format as above. Be aware that if you do not redistribute vocalfixpro.exe you will need to purchase a license for the software. You may also not be able to redistribute Vocal Fix Pro if the company who made it has a license agreement that says you can't. If you wish to redistribute the Vocal
