The one-pot synthesis of racemic bicyclic structures has been achieved via an intramolecular As-B insertion reaction of bis(methoxyaryl)tethered heterobicyclic systems. A carbene methylidenation process under Wittig conditions provides a chiral mixed anhydride of a glycine derivative, which is then condensed with an amide to generate the racemic bicyclic structure. The chirality is maintained during this process.Dahlia Floral Reef Catch-all - 18" $34.95$14.95 Functional
