Death penalty opponent Walter Sullivan said he was “deeply disturbed” to learn of new evidence indicating a man named only as “Greg” was tried in the fatal shooting of a Bergen County man in 1994. The Associated Press reported on Monday that Sullivan, a Morris County prosecutor, learned of the case while conducting research for a book. Sullivan said he immediately reached out to the Morris County Prosecutor’s Office to inquire about the case, but was told by his superiors to wait until the official release of the results of the investigation. “It was a tragedy for the family,” Sullivan told the AP. “I’m deeply disturbed by the whole idea. He’s been dead for 14 years.” The prosecutor who investigated the 1994 shooting said he was at the time unaware the defendant had been tried in a death penalty case. The name of Greg was withheld from prosecutors at the time the case was presented to the grand jury, and prosecutors are unsure of the defendant’s present whereabouts. The prosecutor

I know exactly what I'm doing tomorrow now.In many ways, this was one of the most beautiful times that i've been apart of.We had all our friends and family over, including our out-of-state family, who are besties of ours. It was fun and the food was really good.And the whole thing went by so fast. It was great. I got to see so many old friends. I was surprised how many of them still live in the "old" town and how much they all know and adore me. I know I've mentioned them in various threads, but it all feels so good to be accepted and talked about again. Thanks to all the MHRs for everything. I felt so badly that I didn't have my MHR with me, but I did the best I could. I wanted to call this whole thing, "Everyone's at Disneyland This Summer" but that just didn't fit. We went to Disneyland for the ride and sunshine of Spring, not the desire to start the Summer as per usual. So, we went to Florida instead. Orlando even. Florida is where it's at. Besides that, it's true. What better way to kick off the Summer than to do the unthinkable, as far as the Disney Theme Parks go. Hah! To spend New Years at Disneyland at the age of 54 without a MHR... I knew I had to go! Of course that SOB still had his fake ID in hand when I saw him by the boat dock in the early AM. Fun Fact: He was flirting with the first old lady he saw, who was walking by. I nearly had a heart attack when he said, "Hey, you're not GAY, are you? I mean... gay people don't have girlfriends either. Are you? Are you gay?" I didn't mention it until much later, but there is a very
