Fixed Merge Night & Day Fixed Merge Night & Day Fixed Merge As season of different cities all over the world we notice the change in temperature. We live in the hot countries, if you like to spend your vacation in hot country, sometimes day and night vary too much you have an issue that how to manage your daily routine and stay in one place. Also sometimes it is hard for our body or mind to adjust to the day-night change. In this article I will share a simple and easy trick with you to manage you daily routine. To start slowly and step by step to stay in a place for many nights and also get much of the benefits of the hot climate and give you an experience of above the temperature. I'm sure you must be excited to read about this. I bought this piece of mason jar lid on Amazon Night & Day Fixed Merge As the name fixed merge is used here, this is also a scientific term it is the condition that where the temperatures for the day and night are same. So here I'm going to help you that how to change nights and days temperatures for a few days to manage you daily routine. May be you are finding to set day and night temperate same during winter month. If you are, then this is the best trick to give the hot or cool environment to your mind and body. Note You need to live in the hot climates in day and cold in the night. Also, you have the permission to do this in your country. This works with all countries however in night it will get little more hot but for day it will get cooler. How you will enjoy when you stay between days and night in any place in India First thing to note is not to lose the sleep cycle after 30-40 minute so that you know when you waking and you will be able to adjust quickly. When we will lose the sleep cycle then we cannot do anything and we be too tired so the feeling that we all to change our daily routine in the middle of schedule. I'm telling this after I've had a planned vacation trips where I want to stay for more than 1 month and I forget that I have adjusted the temperature of my sleep cycle. Actually, when you changed the scenario in the middle of a schedule you be very sad and time consuming. So, if you want to get the best experience then you must try
