Azendoo is an application that enables you to send documents, create tasks, keep track of activities and manage your team efficiently by using multiple email, IM and storage tools. Sleek, clean and intuitive interface While the setup is fast and straightforward, you should know that you need to create an account in order to start using the application. On a side note, since there is a chance you cannot do so from within the app, you should try to create your account online. Upon launch, you are welcomed by a modern, stylish and well-organized interface. The UI consists of two panels, one where you can easily access the activities, tasks, message logs, members and subjects and a second pane that allows you to preview more details on the aforementioned elements. On a side note, the program permits customization, so you should not hesitate to change the background image or add a relevant photo for your profile and team. Enables you to integrate tools and apps you commonly use The highlight of the application resides in the fact that it supports the integration of a wide variety of tools used by professionals all across the globe. Simply put, irrespective of the tools and services the members of your team are using, you can be sure to easily share content with them no matter where the files are stored. Since the role of the application is to enable seamless distribution of information, you can be certain to have all the information centralized in one place. As everything is readily accessible, you can discuss, share, create and delegate tasks more efficiently. A sound utility for managing international teams Coming with the capability of integrating some of the most popular email, storage and IM tools, Azendoo can be quite handy when you are working on a project with a virtual team or with people from different geographic locations. Azendoo is an application that enables you to send documents, create tasks, keep track of activities and manage your team efficiently by using multiple email, IM and storage tools. ...work, let's just say that your business Being a Creative is one of the hardest things to do. That is why there are so many people out there that are trying to do it their own way, and keep themselves away from success. Although, there are certain things that can be done to ensure your success. In this article I'm going to be showing you exactly how and why Creativity can be a success in your business. The only question you have to ask yourself is, are you creative? (it would be nice to start off with a yes). 1. Rolodex As a business owner, you need a tool that not only helps you manage the things that you need to do on a daily basis, but also makes sure that you are able to stay on top of all things. As being a creative you are definitely going to learn that it can be tough when you don't know where to look for something. In order to succeed you need to be able to look at all possibilities, as there are going to be certain things that you need to know that you aren't able to find out on your own. Being able to find what you need is the first step to having a creative working. Yes, I said creative. Because you need to be able to keep yourself in sync and never give up. All you need to do is find the right tool to help you manage everything that you need to do. And, if you already have the tool you need, you need to figure out what it is you're looking for. 2. Eraser Creativity is a skill and you need to be able to keep all of your ideas close to your chest because too much information and too many distractions can actually get in the way of your success. As you are a business owner you are going to want to make sure that you are able to get the most out of what you do. And, it is going to take a lot of work and a lot of dedication. If you don't have the skills and the dedication to really take it all the way, you are going to be in trouble. In order
