called on all Palestinian factions to rein in violence and accept Israel's right to exist, but stressed the resistance will never "surrender and kneel before the Jewish state." "The leadership of the Palestinian people bears full responsibility for the outbreak of the intifada," Sinwar told a weekly ceremony marking the anniversary of the death of Muhammad Atta, the leader of the Sept. 11 attacks on the United States. "We are calling on all Palestinian factions to stick together and unite and cooperate,” Sinwar said. “Everyone should follow the wise orders and stop all acts that harm the Palestinian people and separate the factions.” Get The Times of Israel's Daily Edition by email and never miss our top stories Free Sign Up “We will not surrender and we will not kneel before the Jewish state. Resistance is the only way,” he added. Atta’s death is marked in the occupied territories every year on the anniversary of the 2001 Al-Qaeda suicide bombing attacks on New York and Washington. It is customarily attended by Palestinian mourners waving Israeli flags. Tensions in the region have been escalating since July, when US President Donald Trump recognized Jerusalem as Israel's capital and moved the American embassy to the contested city. At least 13 Palestinians have been killed in the protests since then. Most of
