

Just Friends book. Read 133 reviews from the world's largest community of readers. He knows everything about her, from her favorite books to her... Just friends And even though so many years had passed, Harry had not forgotten how much she loved him. He also, like at twenty, still remembers the expression on her face when she found out that he was gay and could never love her the way she did him. Then he realized that her love for him was the only thing he could not give her. He, as then, cannot understand why he needs all this ...
