
The Legend Of Zelda Skyward Sword Kor Wii Square __FULL__

use the beetle to jump across the gaps here and then go down the ledge to the south. you'll see a large pillar with a deku baba on top. use the master sword to destroy the pillar. if you don't have the master sword, you can use a bomb to destroy the pillar. once you've destroyed the pillar, keep following the path until you find a large book. cut down the trees and then jump across the gap to the ledge at the other side. defeat the deku babas here and then grab onto the ceiling and swing on over to the ledge at the other side. go down the stairs at the end of this area and you'll see a locked door. use the small key we got earlier and then head inside. there are two shield moblins here. i suggest using bombs as they do a lot of damage to the enemies. once you've defeated the shield moblins, you can use the whip on the bar at the top. if you don't have a bomb, you can use the master sword. there's a large shield, but there are also two deku babas on the ground. i would suggest trying to go over the shield to damage them or blast them with the master sword. continue on to the next room.

while the legend of zelda: skyward sword isn't coming out until july 16, fans can get a head start playing a game that includes one of link's favorite swords. at the time of this writing, the nintendo entertainment system's game boy was still one of the most popular handheld consoles ever. over the years, the game boy has continued to earn a place in many peoples' hearts, as more than 100 million units have been sold. to celebrate the 30th anniversary of the game boy, nintendo is releasing a special version of the legend of zelda: skyward sword for game boy advance.

youll also be able to play the game in the same resolution as the wii. if youve never played zelda in hd, im sure this will be a nice boost, not just for those who played the wii version. once youre all done, you can exit the room by walking into the large doorway that looks like a hole in the wall. there are two paths out here, with a big glowing triforce in the center. take the right path and youll find a room filled with the gigantic bokoblin, who charge around like maniacs when you first enter the room. hit them with some arrows and then hop to the nearby ledge to avoid them. slide down the wall and youll find a door. inside is a chest. use the chest to break the ice. now head through the door. youll find a chest with a heart container. before you go through the door, youll want to beat the hell out of it with your sword and find a way to get rid of the ice. once you go through the door, youll see a hidden chest. it contains a heart container. now that you have your sword, equip it and attack. the boss will start to go down in a matter of seconds. note that he can still use the attack method we saw earlier. he won't have access to it for a few seconds. after you destroy the boss, he will say that it was his true final form. youll find a chest with a heart container inside.

youll also have the option of using the nintendo ds amiibo figures. in the game, these items can be scanned and either be a sword accessory, shield accessory, bow accessory, or boomerang accessory. if you scan one with the 3ds, youll be given a sword. if you scan one with the wii u, youll be given a shield. scanning them with the wii u also unlocks a 3d effect.
