I just found out about it on Twitter, though. I'll be looking into it. Thank you! A whole year and 2 months. Wow. By the way, I'm a professional tumbler myself, and have been blogging for 2 years. I can say, this is the application I'd want to have. It works beautifully and allows to access all my favourite blogs at once. I'll write a review, so check back in a week or two. Hi It looks really interesting but I have a problem. As I click on your tutorial links I am getting the popup saying this site is not secure. It asks me to turn on the captchas for you.
