When selecting Add Method and using "Create Bytecode" to implement it in Java, the initial action for the dialog is bolded: Why is it bolded? I would have thought the text "Create Bytecode" would have overridden any foreground text on the Action's icon. Perhaps I'm missing something. A: Use Java > Menu > Run > Type "Bytecode" from the context menu to trigger a byte code generation. Q: Weird error with Android studio I started to get this error with an apk that I recently made. It works fine on my emulator and on my phone. I have no idea what could be causing this error. I believe i just edited the code and then pushed it in git. Failed to find target 19 A: I suggest you to make a 2nd apk for debug. The code won't be cleaned for debug build. You might use the proper configuration files. 1.
