Share/Download this product with your friends:Since being diagnosed with sarcoidosis in 2005, my life has been upended. While I enjoy doing things that you or I might consider to be "normal" — like sleeping, getting dressed and traveling — I am a bit more restricted than others. There are things that I can't do; for instance, I cannot lift a gallon of milk, I am unable to stand for more than two hours without being incredibly uncomfortable, and I must wear a compression garment at all times. But it gets worse, because I had the pleasure of experiencing it all from the tail end of my pre-sarcoidosis life. In the beginning, I felt sorry for myself. After a long, glamorous life of dancing with the stars, I had to suddenly become a basset hound. Yes, sarcoidosis is a bummer. My first reaction was to
